

Colorado CASA Presents: CASA in Colorado Awards

Each year in Colorado, thousands of abused and neglected children are helped out of their situations and given every possible chance to lead their best possible lives. The men and women who put their hearts and souls into helping these children are truly heroes. Each of the 15 CASA statewide programs are encouraged to submit nominees for all of the awards, except Advocate of the Year which is awarded solely by Colorado CASA. An independent panel of judges reviews the nominees' anonymous information to select those individuals who have made the biggest impact of the year.

For the first time, Colorado CASA is hosting an Awards Banquet* to celebrate the accomplishments and inspiring passion of these individuals. Please join us on Friday, October 19th at 7:30 p.m. at Doubletree Denver North (8773 Yates Drive in Westminster) as we celebrate and honor these men and women who are changing the future for Colorado's Abused and Neglected children.
